

The Compost Cycle

Where is it Composted?

Marin Sanitary Service chose to utilize the Zamora composting facility because their composting process is the most carbon conscious and is faster than typical composting systems.

Zamora composts using the Covered Aerated Static Pile (CASP) system. Because the compost is covered the entire decomposition time, fugitive emissions are minimalized and the carbon footprint is lower than conventional aerated windrows.

